

RULE 13. THE JURY

(Rule 11.2 from the 2002 version of the Rules)

The jury for an International competition shall be as laid down in the current I.O.F. Rules for International Competitions.

The jury for a C1 or C2 Competition shall consist of three C2 or higher category Controllers. If possible two of the jurors should come from outside the region where the competition takes place. One of these Controllers shall chair the jury. One of the Controllers should be the Planner (if he is a C1 or C2 Controller). If the jury sits the Event Organiser and Controller may attend but may not vote.

The Event Organiser shall appoint the jury for a C1 or C2 event at least 7 days before the competition.

At C3 competitions the jury shall be appointed by the Organiser and shall consist of:

- (1) The Event Controller,
- (2) A C3 or higher category Controller, who shall chair the jury. The official should be from outside the region where the competition takes place.
- (3) Any Controller not involved in the organisation or planning of the competition.

The jury shall meet as soon as possible after receipt of protest. In the case of a postal protest the jury chairperson shall notify the Event Controller of their findings within seven days of receiving the protest. The jury shall deal with all protests in whatever manner they feel appropriate and necessary.
