3ROC NEWS

Congratulations to those 3ROC members who brought in good times at the Leinster Championships, held recently. Adam May won in his class and then did it again at the Schools Championships in the Devil's Glen, along with Matthew May and Maura Convery. And the excellent performances by Justin May and Pat Flanagan at Aughavannagh were, no doubt, a factor in getting them places on Irish teams for the Scottish Championships and the Continental Cup respectively. Adam May is, of course, also on the team for the Continental Cup.

The 3ROC sign was prominent at the JK held over the Easter week-end. At least 12 members travelled and enjoyed the delightful weather, if not the very complex orienteering.

Our relays are being held on May 4th, and while the entry is disappointingly small, it is hoped that the day will be a success.

To fill the gap in the orienteering calendar (a gap which won't affect those who are up to long distance walking or running) Brigid Flanagan is going to run an evening event in Marlay Park on

Finally, on the question of 3ROC O-suits - they were not ready at the JK, but we hope to get them soon - so get in your orders, before they are all gone.

EDITOR'S NOTE

Signposting - "Had those 'kettle things' anything to do with the orienteering ?? ?" - so asked an inexperienced orienteer, who, luckily, did manage to get to Aughavannagh despite the lack of standard signposting.

Individual club symbols, however well-known to the initiated, are not familiar to everyone who may wish to orienteer - and we do want the non-competitive and family orienteers to keep coming out. Clubs who prefer to use their own symbol for signposting might well add the word "Orienteering" to clarify the sign.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

I refer to the article in your previous issue (March, 1980) on the LOK weekend, written by Justin May (JM to his friends - watching too much of Dallas, I suspect). In his slanderous article he asked two rhetorical questions, one of them referring to me. My wrath over the implications if this question is forcing me to put pen to paper. To remind our readers of the item the question was "is it true that Brendan C. (me) slept through 'life of Brian'?". Firstly if I had would it not show commitment to the event earlier that day? and secondly how on earth could anyone sleep while Eddie Niland was laughing? I trust this will clear the matter up sufficiently.

Yours sincerely,

Brendan G. Cryan,
alias Brian (or is it Bwine?) and Sleepy.

Letters to the Editor (ctd).

Dear Editor,

There are now at least eight Long Walks or Marathons each year in Ireland - I list those I know, with 1980 dates.

26th April	Comeragh Bog-Trot
10th May	Maum Turks Walk
1st June	Reeks Walk
1st June	Mourne Wall Walk
15th June	Seven Peaks Walk (Galtees)
21st June	Lugnaquilla Walk
7th July	Ring of the Glen (of Imaal)
13th Sept.	Glover Marathon (Donegan Highlands)

All these are (of course!) non-competitive, and the organisers all frown (some more deeply than others) at those who compete unofficially. There is only one competitive event? each year? - the LOC Marathon, yet there are unofficial record times for most of the "Walks" and there are keen fell-runners anxious to match themselves competitively. There is a rumour too that the Karrimor Mountain Marathon might be run over here in a few years' time.

Is it not time, therefore, that we have a Full-Runners Association in Ireland? Perhaps anyone who thinks it a good idea might write to the Newsletter?

Yours sincerely,

Felix.

And, as if in answer to Felix, a note received from AJAX.

A series of fell runs, midweek and starting at 6.30 p.m., is being organised in the Dublin Mountains by AJAX. Details are given below. These will be run on a league basis with the best 4 to count for the overall result. Entry for full series will be taken at event 1 (3 Rock Car Park).

May 22nd.	Three Rock Forest Car Park	AJAX

Aug. 30th. Lugnaquilla Relay Mountain Marathon AJAX

" 2. Sally Gap to Wicklow Gap
" 3. Wicklow Gap to Glenmalure.

Not knowing everyone on the C class I hope I have not got the combinations wrong.

In Classes A & B, if I have not managed to fit in (Ax) beside a name, by process of elimination this person had the map his team mates didn't have!!

Organiser's Notes

Remember if your club suggests that you organise a relay, that it should not be undertaken lightly - even for a non-serious event its a lot of work.

It would not have happened at all without all all the help I had, especially from Brigid and Pat Flanagan, Adam and Justin May, and my own sister and brother (non-orienteers) mustered for the day. Lelia Mangan didn't just bring herself, she stole Harriet Roche for the day - I am awaiting protests from another club!

One gripe - a certain well-known club requested 3 late entries,(maps done Saturday night) and then didn't turn up - inconsiderate.

S. Cawley.
